GOOD SHEPHERD LUTHERAN CHURCH

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Here is a simple pattern for the church's celebration during Epiphany: Christ is revealed as the servant of all people; Christ is baptized for his mission; Christ proclaims his message in word and deed until he goes up to Jerusalem. Here the season and the readings set forth a pattern for the community of faith: we enter this church, shaped and sustained by the sacraments, with a mission to serve the world. We are called to invite others to come and see the Lord. Come and touch the waters of new life, we say. Come and hear the words of good news. Come and taste the bread of life and the cup of mercy. Let your lives be shaped and sustained by these good things of God's grace.

In addition to the civil observance of Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday (USA) tomorrow, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins on Tuesday, continuing through January 25.

Present to Us

The Lamb of God? Of what lamb did John speak? Might it have been the paschal lamb, offered at Passover to remember God's saving act in the exodus from Egypt? This was the lamb whose blood Hebrew slaves had streaked onto their doorposts to mark their houses as safe from the angel of death.

At this moment of recognition, John knew Jesus as one who was set apart. John knew Jesus was the one for whom he had prepared the way. John baptized with water, but Jesus would baptize with the Holy Spirit. John gave witness to his faith. He shone the light on Jesus—he helped others see. His call was to reveal Jesus to Israel.

Because of John's choice of images, we could imagine Jesus as a sacrificial victim. Indeed many Christians throughout history have been moved by this image. But we could also see Jesus, the Lamb of God, as God's presence among us. Jesus is provided by God, and he is the one who marks us as safe from the angel of death.

Of course, we know that faith does not exempt us from physical death. We will all die. But in Jesus, we see that we are borne into death, not alone, but held by God's unfailing love for us. Baptized by the Spirit, we believe that the Spirit descends on us and "remains" on us, as John testified the Spirit did for Jesus. The Spirit abides with us, to use another translation of the same term. The Spirit walks with us into any death we face, whether it be daily pains and disappointments or our ultimate passage from this life.

Can we share John's excitement about this Jesus? Can we also become ones who reveal him to those around us, shining a light on the wonder of God's presence in him?

 RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.

Blessed are you, Prince of Peace. You rule the earth with truth and justice.

Send your gift of peace to all nations of the world.

Blessed are you, Son of Mary. You share our humanity.

Have mercy on those who are sick, dying, and all who suffer this day.

Blessed are you, Son of God. You dwell among us as the Word made flesh.

Reveal yourself to us in word and sacrament, that we may bear your light to all the world.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY (spoken)

Let us pray.

Lord God, you showed your glory and led many to faith by the works of your Son. As he brought gladness and healing to his people, grant us these same gifts and lead us also to perfect faith in him, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 49:1-7

The first reading is from Isaiah, chapter 49.

Today's reading again picks up the theme of God's transformation of the old into something new. The imagery is familiar: the appointed one is called before birth and equipped to do God's work. The new thing is that the servant will not only do God's work for the benefit of Israel, but will also work for the benefit of the nations.

Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away!
The LORD called me before I was born,
 while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
²He made my mouth like a sharp sword,
 in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me a polished arrow,
 in his quiver he hid me away.
³And he said to me, "You are my servant,
 Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
⁴But I said, "I have labored in vain,
 I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
yet surely my cause is with the LORD,
 and my reward with my God."
⁵And now the LORD says,
 who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
 and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honored in the sight of the LORD,
 and my God has become my strength—⁶he says,
"It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel;
I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."
⁷Thus says the LORD,
 the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
 the slave of rulers,
"Kings shall see and stand up,
 princes, and they shall prostrate themselves
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
 the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you." (NRSV)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God. (spoken)

PSALM 40 (Congregational response)

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

The second reading is from 1 Corinthians, chapter 1.

Paul's letters to Corinth are addressed to a church beset by many problems. Still, he begins this epistle by emphasizing the faithfulness and grace of God, whose strength will see them through.

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, ²To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—⁶just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. (NRSV)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God. (spoken)

 GOSPEL

John 1:29-42

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 1st chapter.

John the Baptist's witness to Jesus initiates a chain of testimony as his disciples begin to share with others what they have found.

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' ³¹I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." ³²And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. ³³I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

³⁵The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples. ³⁶and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" ³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" ³⁹He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. ⁴⁰One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). ⁴²He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter). (NRSV)

SERMON

Pastor Prochaska

 HYMN 494 LBW (green hymnal)

Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult

 NICENE CREED (spoken)

God has made us his people through our Baptism into Christ.
Living together in trust and hope we confess our faith.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* HYMN 92 (purple songbook)

Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying

* PRAYERS (spoken)

Prayers are included for the whole Church, the nations, those in need, the parish and special concerns. The minister gives thanks for the faithful departed, especially for those who recently have died.

Let us pray that the dawn from on high will shine upon the church, the world, and all those in need.

We pray: Hear us, God of light.

Hear all our prayers, gracious God, and receive them in the name of the Word made flesh, your Son, Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

MEAL

 PEACE (spoken)

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

*The ministers and congregation may greet one another with a gesture of peace, using these or similar words: Peace be with you.

 OFFERTORY PRAYER (spoken)

Let us pray.

God of glory,

with great joy we worship you and lay before you these gifts, which you have first given us. Let our lives serve you only, and lead us always to our dearest treasure, Jesus Christ, the bright and morning star. Amen.

 GREAT THANKSGIVING (sung)

The musical notation is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff shows the Presider's part: "The Lord be with you. And al-so with you." The second staff shows the Congregation's part: "Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord." The third staff shows the Presider's part: "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is" and the Congregation's part: "right to give God thanks and praise." The notation includes treble clefs, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are placed below the notes.

 LORD'S PRAYER (spoken) (Personal option - holding hands)

Made bold by the Holy Spirit, we pray as Jesus taught:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION -- Receiving the Lord's tangible presence

The body of Christ, given for you. The blood of Christ, shed for you. The communicant may say: Amen.

We invite everyone to come to the Communion Rail and kneel if you are able. Children who have not been instructed are encouraged to join their family for a blessing. The Pastor or Communion Assistant will place the communion wafer in the communicant's "cupped hands". Choice of chalice with wine or individual glasses with wine or apple juice are available. Communicants desiring apple juice will need to "gesture" to the innermost circle of glasses in the communion tray where glasses of apple juice are available. The Communion Assistant will hand you the proper small communion cup. After receiving Holy Communion and private prayer at the Altar we encourage communicants to return to their pew for additional prayer, meditation or participation in singing the communion hymns. God bless you.

Praise the Name of Jesus

(Roy Hicks; arr. Mark Hayes)

You Are My All In All

(Dennis Jernigan)

Chorus 1

Jesus Lamb of God
Worthy is Your name
Jesus Lamb of God
Worthy is Your name

Verse 1

You are my strength
When I am weak
You are the treasure
That I seek
You are my All in All
Seeking You as a precious jew'l
Lord to give up I'd be a fool
You are my All in All

Verse 2

Taking my sin
My cross my shame
Rising again I bless Your name
You are my All in All
When I fall down You pick me up
When I am dry You fill my cup
You are my All in All

Holy is His Name

(John Michael Talbot)

Chorus 1

And holy holy holy is His name
And holy holy holy is His name
And holy holy holy is His name
And holy holy holy is His name

Verse 1

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord
And my Spirit exults in God my Savior
For He has looked with mercy on my lowliness
And His name will be forever exalted
For the mighty God has done great things for me
And His mercy will reach from age to age

Verse 2

He has mercy in ev'ry generation
He has revealed His power and His glory
He has cast down the mighty in their arrogance
And has lifted up the meek and the lowly
He has come to help His servant Israel
He remembers His promise to our fathers
