FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST [PROPER 7]

In today's gospel reading, Jesus gives a brief teaching on the nature of discipleship: do not be afraid, for I am with you; tell others what you hear me say; give your life to the good news and you will discover the riches of life.

This teaching appears simple, yet it is spoken in an anxious and troubled world where it is easier to be fearful than courageous and more common to look out for oneself than to care for the neighbor in need.

He'll never leave me
No matter where I go

A TIME FOR SILENCE AND REFLECTION

SONG

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

(Helen H. Lemmel)

Chorus 1

Turn your eyes upon Jesus
Look full in His wonderful face
And the things of earth
Will grow strangely dim
In the light of His glory and grace

Verse 2

Through death into life everlasting
He passed and we follow Him there
Over us sin no more hath dominion
For more than conquerors we are

Verse 1

O soul are you weary and troubled
No light in the darkness you see
There's light for a look at the Savior
And life more abundant and free

Verse 3

His Word shall not fail you He promised
Believe Him and all will be well
Then go to a world that is dying
His perfect salvation to tell

WORD

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 20:7-13

A reading from Jeremiah.

Jeremiah's message of doom earns him only contempt and persecution. Having been beaten, placed in stocks, and then released by Pashur, one of the temple priests, Jeremiah cries out in heart-wrenching lament. Nevertheless, the prophet remains confident of God's care and concludes with resounding praise.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Romans 6:1b-11

A reading from Romans.

In the first part of his letter to the Romans, Paul says that God sent Christ to die for us while we were sinners and so, by grace, accepts us through baptism just as we are. Now, he clarifies that baptism also brings freedom from the slavery of sin and the possibility of beginning a new life.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the tenth chapter.
Glory to you, O Lord.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.
